Sustainability & CSR

"At Texroot Sourcing, sustainability is not an option — it is our responsibility. We are committed to ethical sourcing, eco-friendly practices, and ensuring every garment is made with respect for people and the planet."

Environmental Responsibility

We collaborate with certified green factories that follow eco-friendly processes and reduce water, energy, and waste. Our partners hold OEKO-TEX®, GOTS, WRAP, and ISO 14001 certifications. At our office, we avoid polybags as part of our commitment to reducing plastic use and supporting a greener future.

Community Engagement

We support local communities through employee welfare, education, and skill development programs that promote safety, health, and inclusive growth.

Ethical Practices

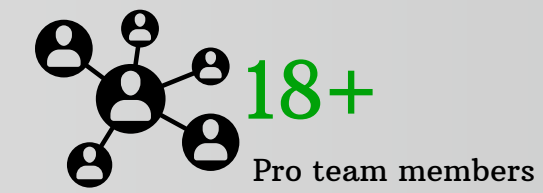

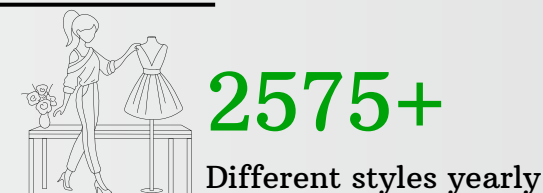

We uphold strict labor standards with fair wages, safe conditions, and zero tolerance for child or forced labor. Transparency and integrity guide every operation.

Our Commitment

We balance business growth with social and environmental responsibility to create a positive impact on our employees, partners, and communities.

WE INVITE YOU TO VISIT BANGLADESH

At Texroot, we believe that sourcing garments is not just about factories and production lines — it's about people, culture, and connection.

That's why we warmly welcome our valued partners to visit Bangladesh — not only to explore our world-class garment manufacturing, but also to experience the beauty, history, and hospitality of our country.

From the lush green tea gardens of Sylhet to the world's longest natural sea beach in Cox's Bazar, from the heritage rivers and beautiful villages to the vibrant streets of Dhaka, Bangladesh offers a journey unlike any other.

Come for business. Stay for the experience.

Let us host you — not just as clients, but as friends.

Bangladesh is more than a sourcing destination — it's a story waiting to be felt.
